Course Description

The 5th Annual National Alliance for Drug Endangered Children Conference is a three-day event providing training on the latest research and best-practice strategies for Drug Endangered Children efforts at the community, state, and federal level. The conference will include topics related to child welfare, environmental health, medical, prevention, the judiciary and drug courts, substance abuse and mental health, continuum of care, and topics specific to Tribal Nations.

Conference Objectives

This educational offering will enable the participant to:

- Develop local, state, and federal alignment in response to drug endangered children
- Identify the availability of resources and technical assistance for state and tribal alliances
- Explain how to change long-term outcomes for drug endangered children and their families
- Discuss the latest research and best practice strategies for drug endangered children efforts at the community, state, and federal level
- Describe how to develop relationships, share resources, and deliver services to Native American communities
- Discuss the Indian Child Welfare Act and describe how to protect children and preserve Native American culture
- Demonstrate how to utilize the family and other personal supports in a positive way by understanding the psychological and social needs of children from addicted families
- Discuss the latest research of perinatal methamphetamine exposure and environmental health chemical contamination from methamphetamine
- Define the community-based, best-practice programs for chemical contamination clean-up, drug courts, forensic interviewing, and effective substance-abuse treatment
- Illustrate how to have positive working relationships between disciplines utilizing joint protocols for the comprehensive approach to drug endangered children

Conference Location

Salt Lake City sits at the base of the Wasatch Mountains next to the Great Salt Lake. Salt Lake blends the historical landmarks of its pioneer past with the vibrancy of the modern West. Located in the downtown convention area are Symphony Hall; Ballet West; the Family History Library; the Utah Opera Company; the Salt Lake Arts Center; and the world-famous Temple Square, home of the Mormon Tabernacle Choir (performances every Thursday evening and Sunday morning). There is plenty of shopping and restaurants within walking distance of the Radisson Hotel, including the Gateway which delivers the ultimate shopping, dining, and entertainment experience.

The Salt Lake Convention and Visitors Bureau provides information on sightseeing, skiing, current events, and transportation. 801.534.4900 or www.visitsaltlake.com.

Cancellation

Written notice is required to receive a refund. All refunds are subject to a $50 processing fee. No refunds will be made after September 26, 2008.

Hotel Reservations

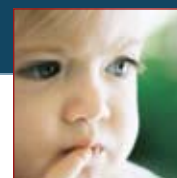

The conference is held at the Radisson Hotel, 215 West South Temple, Salt Lake City, Utah. A limited number of rooms are blocked under the National Drug Endangered Child Conference for $90 per night for single rate or $105 per night for double rate. Reservation block expires September 5, 2008. Call the Radisson Hotel at 801.531.7500 or 888.201.1718 and mention the National Alliance for Drug Endangered Children Conference when making reservations to ensure you receive the discounted room rate. You can also make arrangements online at www.radisson.com/saltlakecityut_downtown by clicking "More Search Options." Use promotional code NADE.

Call for Abstracts

Is your program doing the latest and greatest? Do you have research that you would like to share? We want to know. Please submit your abstract by August 15, 2008. Up to ten abstracts will be chosen for poster presentations. Please refer to www.nationaldec.org/Conference/conference.htm for guidelines.

Optional Night Out in Salt Lake City

Utah Olympic Park and Park City (4 hours)

Tour the Utah Olympic Park venue of the bobsled, ski jumping, luge, and skeleton events. You will also tour Park City (home of the Sundance Film Festival) and learn its fascinating history as a mining boomtown. Take a few minutes to enjoy getting dinner on your own from one of many different restaurants in between exploring the shops, boutiques, and art galleries, lined along Main Street. Price: $65 per person; includes transportation, Western Leisure guide, entrance fees, and water.

A Night of Adventure (5 hours)

Start off your evening by heading north to Ogden, Utah where adventure meets fun. We'll start with dinner in the Union Station, home of the Browning Gun Museum which you'll have the chance to explore before we head over to

The Junction. At The Junction you'll have the choice of scaling a rock wall, learn to skydive in a wind tunnel, or catch a wave while boogie boarding on the Flow Rider. If hardcore adrenaline isn't your thing tonight, enjoy Ogden's Main Street where you'll find gallery shops and a hoppin' night life. Price: $145 per person; includes transportation, Western Leisure guide, entrance fees, dinner, and water.

Registration

Registration deadline is September 23, 2008. You will need to register online in order to participate in this activity. Registration is not part of this form. To register, log on to www.nationalalliance.western-leisure.com.
